The Debtor's Response to Objection to Confirmation of Plan (Docket No. 187) The Debtor's Objection to Proof of Claim Number 5 Filed by Banco Popular de Puerto Rico (the "Objection to POC #5", Docket No. 153) BPPR's Response to Objection to Claim No. 5 (Docket No. 184)Appearances: Gerardo A. Carlo, Esq. and Kendra Loomis, Esq., Debtor Luis C. Marini Biaggi, Esq. and Nayuan Zouairabani, Esq., BPPR Mr. Antonio Betancourt, Esq. (president of Empresa Omajede, Inc.) Mr. Nelson Galarza, CPA (Expert Witness for the Debtor) Mr. Eduardo Soria (Expert Witness for BPPR)Final Arguments and Orders: The Debtor proffered that in order to follow the United States Supreme Court's decision in Till v. SCS Credit , 541 U.S. 465 (2004), the court needed to determine if there was a market for these types of loans and after finding none, then apply the "prime plus" approach. Regarding feasibility, the Debtor proffered that the rent rolls and account receivables would demonstrate the Debtor's ability to make payments. The Debtor would also offer a summary of the Monthly Operating Reports to show that it has been performing at a gain. The Debtor would also present financial statements to show that it has been performing at a gain during the bankruptcy proceedings. All these documents would be presented along with witness testimony. BPPR proffered that it would only cross exam the Debtor's witnesses. BPPR also proffered that there is no supporting documentation for the Debtor's proposed payment plan to substantiate the projections and payment schemes. BPPR lastly proffered that with the evidence presented during the hearing, the court could make a determination that the rates provided in the plan are not market rates and that the proper rates are those offered by BPPR, which would make the plan unfeasible. Due to time constraints, the court continued the confirmation hearing without a date, along with the issue of Objection to POC #5. A date would be coordinated with the attorneys in the next days. The continuation for the confirmation hearing was subsequently coordinated for June 30, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. When asked if the court could issue a ruling on the issue of interest and repayment terms in order to better guide the parties, the court understood that it would not make a decision on the merits at this juncture.
